APPENDIX A
TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Access:

- a. Client agrees to provide Consultant with timely access to information, locations, and personnel reasonably necessary for the performance of the Services.
- b. Client acknowledges that subsurface or other concealed conditions on, below, or about the Project Site may vary from those conditions encountered in specific borings, surveys or explorations performed by Consultant and that the information and recommendations developed by Consultant are based solely on the information available from such borings, surveys, and explorations.
- c. Client grants to Consultant the right of entry to the geographical location where the services are to be performed ("Project Site") by its employees, agents, consultants, contractors, and subcontractors, for the purpose of performing the services. Client represents that it has obtained the needed permits and licenses for the services, including the making of surveys, test borings and other environmental investigations as described in the Proposal. If Client does not own the Project Site, Client warrants and represents to Consultant that it has the authority and permission of the owner and/or occupant of the Project Site to grant the right of entry to Consultant.

- 2. Client and Third Party Work Product: The information provided by Client to Consultant shall be considered "as is" and Consultant will not validate or confirm the accuracy of the data and information provided. It is further understood that Consultant may be reviewing work product prepared by parties other than Consultant on behalf of Client, and accordingly, Client agrees to hold harmless and indemnify Consultant for all claims, damages, demands, liability and costs (including attorney fees as incurred) arising from negligent acts, errors and omissions of the parties who prepared such work product.

- 3. Preliminary Findings and Draft Reports: The preparation of Consultant work product is an evolving process during which Consultant analysis is focused and refined as research and document review proceeds and as information emerges. Preliminary conclusions, superseded drafts, notations, analyses, work lists, and irrelevant data are not a part of, and will not be recorded in, the final work product. Such documents may be appropriately discarded on a routine basis as work tasks are completed. Of course, circumstances may arise that require the retention of such drafts or other interim documents, including but not limited to subpoenas and court orders. Consultant understands that Client will provide it with any instructions regarding document retention or document production procedures that Client expects Consultant to follow.

4. Consulting Services Disclaimer:

Consultant will not audit any financial statements or performing any attest procedures while performing the Services under this Agreement. Consultant's Services are not designed, nor should they be relied upon, to disclose internal weaknesses in internal controls, financial statement errors, irregularities, illegal acts, or disclosure deficiencies. Consultant is not a professional accounting firm and does not practice accounting. Consultant's Services will not include accounting, legal or architectural advice or services.

- 5. Independent Contractor: It is understood and agreed that Consultant will for all purposes be an independent contractor, will not hold itself out as representing or acting in any manner for Client, and neither Consultant nor Client will have any authority to bind the other party to any contract or in any other manner. Consultant and Client do not intend to create a joint employer relationship, and Consultant and Client each represent that it is the sole employer of its employees. Consultant shall not and does not have the right to control Client's employees' essential terms and conditions of employment, including hiring its employees, determining their wages and benefits, or assigning, scheduling, training, disciplining, or terminating its employees.

- 6. Standard of Care and Performance: Consultant agrees that the Services provided for herein will be performed in a professional manner in accordance with recognized professional consulting standards for similar services and that qualified personnel will be assigned for that purpose. In providing the Services, Consultant and its personnel shall exercise reasonable care. Consultant cannot guarantee or assure the achievement of any performance objective, nor can Consultant guarantee or assure any particular outcome for Client or any other person as a result of this Agreement or the performance of the Services.

If, during the performance of these Services or within one year following completion of the Agreement, such Services will prove to be faulty or defective by reason of a failure to meet such standards, Consultant agrees that upon prompt written notification from Client prior to the expiration of the one-year period following the completion of the Agreement of any such fault or defect, such faulty portion of the Services will be redone at no cost to Client up to a maximum amount equivalent to the cost of the Services rendered under this Agreement. THE FOREGOING WILL CONSTITUTE CONSULTANT'S SOLE WARRANTY WITH RESPECT TO THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE SERVICES AND THE ACTIVITIES INVOLVED IN ITS PREPARATION, AND IS MADE IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

7. Safety: Consultant's responsibility for the safety of persons on the Project Site shall be limited to its own personnel and its subcontractors and any other persons over whom Consultant has control on the Project Site. This shall not be construed to relieve the Client or any of its contractors from their responsibilities for maintaining a safe job site. Neither the professional activities of Consultant, nor the presence of Consultant's employees and its subcontractors shall be construed to imply that Consultant has any responsibility for any activities on the Project Site performed by personnel other than Consultant's employees or subcontractors.

Consultant will comply with the reasonable requirements of any applicable health and safety plan provided to it by Client.

8. Control of Project Site: If the services to be performed under this Agreement are to be performed on property controlled by Client, Client acknowledges that it is now and shall always remain in control of the Project Site. Client also understands that the discovery of certain hazardous substances and conditions and/or the taking of preventive measures relative to these substances and conditions may result in a reduction of the value of the property upon which the substance or condition is found to exist or the preventative measures are taken. Accordingly, Client waives any claim against Consultant and its subcontractors and agrees to defend, indemnify and hold Consultant and its subcontractors harmless from any claim based upon the diminished value of real property allegedly arising from the discovery of a hazardous substance or condition or the taking of a preventative measure, unless such claim is based upon the negligent performance of services under the scope of work in the Agreement.

9. Existing Site Information:

- a. Client shall furnish or cause to be furnished to Consultant all information known to Client that relates in any manner to subsurface hazards, or man-made obstructions, or hazardous conditions or materials on the Project Site, including but not limited to, hazardous wastes, hazardous substances, underground storage tanks, ACM, pipelines and utility lines. Consultant shall be entitled to rely upon the information provided by Client. Failure to notify Consultant of any of the above listed subsurface hazards or conditions known to Client shall result in Client assuming full liability for all costs, expenses and damages incurred by Consultant as a result of such failure. Consultant shall not be liable for damage or injury arising from damage to subterranean structures, which are not called to Consultant's attention or correctly shown on the documents furnished to Consultant.
- b. If the presence of an unanticipated hazardous substance or condition is discovered during the performance of the scope of work in the Agreement which could pose a hazard to Consultant's employees, agents and subcontractors, Consultant shall cease work and determine the necessary health and safety precautions to continue. The cost of these necessary health and safety precautions will be incorporated into the agreement through a written amendment signed by the parties.

10. Subsurface Exploration and Material Sampling:

a. Consultant will take reasonable precautions to avoid any damage to the Project Site from the activities of its crews or equipment. However, unavoidable damage caused in the execution of the work such as tire rutting, cutting, and splicing of fences, removal of ACM core samples in insulation, pipe wrap, drilling through pavements, etc., will not be restored unless otherwise stated in the Proposal.

b. In addition, Client recognizes that commonly used subsurface exploration methods (including but not limited to drilling borings, pushing, or driving probes, or excavating trenches) involve an inherent risk. These exploration methods may penetrate through a stratigraphic unit bearing hazardous substances and serve as a connecting passageway between such stratigraphic unit and an uncontaminated stratigraphic unit or groundwater, thus potentially inducing cross-contamination. In accordance with current design, backfilling with grout or by other means is intended (but does not guarantee) to provide a seal against such a passageway. However, Client recognizes that such a seal may be imperfect and that there is an inherent risk in drilling borings, pushing, or driving probes, excavating trenches, or implementing other methods of exploration at or near a site contaminated by hazardous substances. Further, Client recognizes that these are not the only risks which may encountered but are simply examples of consequences which cannot be anticipated or avoided in many cases, even through the exercise of the required Standard of Care. Client accepts these and all similar risks and releases Consultant from all liability that may be incurred due to aquifer cross contamination resulting from the services provided by Consultant, provided that such services were performed in accordance with the required Standard of Care.

11. Analytical Testing: If required under the Agreement scope of work, Consultant will perform, or will retain the services of third-party analytical laboratories to perform, analytical tests in accordance with current standard characterization techniques (e.g., standard methods, ACM, EPA methods).

12. Disposal of Contaminated Samples and Exploration Debris:

a. Consultant shall retain samples of soil, rock, waste or other materials contaminated by hazardous substances, including ACM, obtained from the Project Site for not longer than thirty (30) calendar days after issuing written test results, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing, but such samples shall always remain the exclusive property of Client. Unless indicated otherwise, Consultant, acting as Client's agent, may plan for proper transportation and disposal of the samples with appropriate licensed parties or may return the samples to Client. Client agrees to pay all transportation and disposal costs and provide a manifest signed by Client as generator for transportation to a disposal site selected by Client, or Consultant will return the samples to the Project Site.

b. Client shall be the owner of all exploration debris, cuttings, pumping's, and borings generated by Consultant during the performance of the Scope of Work. If requested by Client, Consultant, as agent of Client, shall arrange for the proper disposal of all exploration debris, cuttings, pumping's, and borings generated during Consultant's activities. Disposal of contaminated exploration debris shall be at the price set forth in the Proposal/ Fee Schedule. If the Proposal/Fee Schedule is silent, then the fee for the disposal of all exploration debris, cuttings, pumping's, and borings shall be Consultant's direct cost plus ten percent (10%) multiplier.

Client Initials _____

13. Field Monitoring: If Consultant's services include monitoring of work performed by other contractors, under no circumstances shall Consultant have the right or obligation to stop or direct the contractor's work. Consultant may, but is not obligated to, provide data and observations to Client. Consultant shall not assume responsibility for the contractor's means, methods, techniques, sequences, or procedures and Consultant's services shall not relieve the contractor of its responsibilities for performing the work in accordance with the plans and specifications and applicable laws and regulations. Continuous monitoring by Consultant's employees does not mean that Consultant is observing all activities of the contractor or any other activities on the Project Site. If Consultant is not retained to monitor remedial construction or ACM abatement recommended by Consultant, Client waives any claim against Consultant arising from the negligence of others during such construction or ACM abatement and agrees to indemnify, defend and save Consultant harmless from any claim, liability for injury, or loss arising from the performance of such remedial construction or ACM abatement.

14. Sampling or Test Location: Unless otherwise stated in the proposal or elsewhere in this Agreement, the fees do not include costs associated with surveying the Project Site for accurate horizontal and vertical locations of tests or samples which, when referenced in Consultant's report, are based on information furnished by others and/or estimates made by Consultant's personnel and are only to be considered approximations unless otherwise stated. Consultant may deviate a reasonable distance from any test or sampling location specified by Client. If, in order to complete a given boring to its designated depth, a re-drilling is necessitated due to the presence of impenetrable subsurface objects, all associated costs, including the original boring and all re-drilling, will be charged at the appropriate rates as specified in the Fee Schedule, or if no Fee Schedule is provided, then the re-drilling shall be charged at Consultant's direct cost plus ten percent (10%) multiplier.

15. Termination: Either party may terminate this Agreement without cause upon no less than thirty (30) days' written notice of termination to the other party; provided however the foregoing without cause termination provision shall not apply when any portion of the professional fees to be paid to Consultant under this Agreement are contingent upon the achievement of certain milestones, deliverables, results or other metrics mutually agreed upon by the parties. In the event of termination for any reason, Client will pay Consultant for all fees and expenses incurred through the effective date of termination as well as reasonable engagement closing costs.

16. Intellectual Property: Upon full payment of all amounts due Consultant in connection with this Agreement, all rights, title and interest in any information and items, including summaries, documents, reports and portions thereof Consultant provides to Client (the "Consultant Deliverables") will become Client's sole and exclusive property for its internal business purposes and uses pursuant to the scope set forth in the applicable SOW, subject to the exceptions set forth below. Consultant shall retain sole and exclusive ownership of all rights, title and interest in its work papers, proprietary information, processes, methodologies, know-how and software, including such information as existed prior to the delivery of the Services and, to the extent such information is of general application, anything that it may discover, create or develop during provision of the Services ("Consultant Property"). To the extent the Consultant Deliverables contain Consultant Property; Client is granted a non-exclusive, non-assignable, royalty-free license to use it in connection with the subject of this Agreement.

17. Consultant Deliverables: Consultant provides the Services and Consultant Deliverables solely for Client's internal use and benefit. The Services and Consultant Deliverables are not for a third party's use, benefit or reliance and Consultant disclaims any contractual or other responsibility or duty of care to any third party based upon the Services or Consultant Deliverables. Except as described below, Client shall not discuss the Services with or disclose Consultant Deliverables to any third party or otherwise disclose the Services or Consultant Deliverables without Consultant's prior written consent, which may be conditioned upon such third party agreeing to non-reliance and indemnification language satisfactory to Consultant. Client will indemnify and hold Consultant harmless from all claims asserted by a third party because of such unauthorized release of the Consultant Deliverables or reliance on the Services.

The Services and Consultant Deliverables, including any oral advice or comments, should not be associated with, referred to, or quoted in any manner in any financial statements or any offering memorandum, prospectus, registration statement, public filing, loan, or other agreements.

Client may disclose the Consultant Deliverables to or discuss information relating to the Services (a) as required by law; (b) as required by any government or regulatory agency with supervisory authority over Client; and (c) with Client's legal advisors, financial advisors, financing representatives and auditors which are acting solely for Client's benefit and on Client's behalf and which have a need to know such information in order to provide advice or services to Client.
